Dear Cal,

You got the idea correctly. If anybody had really wanted to get through to Curry once his phone did not answer they'd have sent someone.

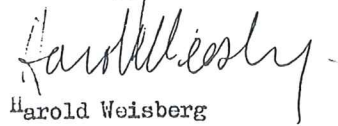

When you get older you'll understand better that there are times when truth is not the important consideration for government.

You may want to bear in ^{mind} mind when you are reading and thinking how many have to have known that the government was intending to lie and then did lie and were silent about it and did what was expected of them.

You'll be welcome whenever you come.

I hope you are having a good holiday and that a good year is ahead.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
